Caitlyn Carman, an inspiring young woman, was tragically killed in a car accident on March 8, 2018. Caitlyn captured the hearts of everyone she met with her passion for life and genuine, goofy spirit. Caitlyn aspired to be a Special Education teacher where she could encourage and motivate students to live their best life.

The Live Like Cat Foundation is dedicated to continuing Caitlyn's legacy as well as supporting nonprofit organizations committed to children, education, literacy and teaching.
